"The Bright Mirage of the Lagoon." Venice, the "Queen of the Adriatic," is a most beautiful city, its 15,000 houses and palaces being chiefly erected on piles and low-lying islands connected by bridges (of which there are no less than 378). Prominent features on the lakes and canals are the bright-hued triangular sails of the boats and the graceful forms of the swift gondolas, for the accommodation of which innumerable mooring piles have been driven into the sea bed, their projecting ends relieving the monotonous level of the water with charming effect.
